

'I' – An Eye Piece to the Visual Arts

In its attempt to take art out of the white cube and sensitizing people to the various forms art can take, the Visual Arts Gallery also publishes a quarterly magazine called the 'I' – An Eye Piece to the Visual Arts'. In this newsletter, readers are encouraged to write in their responses, making the publication a discursive space. The 'I' also gives an overview of the interesting events in the field of arts that take place in India and abroad. Complimentary copies of the 'I' are given to all the members of the India Habitat Centre. You can the PDF version of the 'I' by clicking on the following links:

- May 2007 Issue
- June 2006 Issue
- February 2006 Issue